Beloved - I have time for a word only - this AM.

Revised - was it - wrote of "works & days" - We might be eloquent on midnights, & nights. But what a morning it is - not yet clear tho. But to business - I have well packed the house & find that bit of a model for the color of your wall. Do you know where it is? I must have put it - cover ~~too~~ carefully - but unless you know - I will apply to Green for another - It is ~~necessary~~ well & have the first coat - as near what is wanted as possible on acct of harmonizing the whole.

The Cutlery are done - repaired - that is - a body of men will fix the floor - as soon as this is done the painters will begin - My idea of the border is - dead leaf color - wh. might not do the uninformed mind convey a very lively & distinct impression but I think you know.

A letter from A. S. yesterday says, one nail - tho so brief has sweetened all the summer.
& says please tell Miss M.
I shall try to write again before next Wednesday - but if you do not hear from me sent to meet me at arrival of train Wed. night - but I was disappointed - Dear mum. Case shall write certainly - Sarah's stiff neck came back with a great deal of discomfort every way - Also Mother has been in that condition in wh. I will never leave her - Both are better & Sarah who has been ~~expecting~~ the Dr. has a cert. of Mrs.

Rowse & has not seen him yet is going down this AM. to consult - But we hope to have a great medical man in this neighbor, soon whom you & she & all of us are going to fall into the arms of - My love to must go - Belmont.

Recd. your dear letter Monday - met him -
Yes I will write Sunday any way -
